

	Components to prepare a manuscript
	Select journal that you intend to submit to with mentor
	Download and review guide for authors from journal website
	Title page (Title, authors, affiliations, corresponding author)
	Abstract
	Manuscript body
	References (use citation tool like EndNote or Mendeley)
	Acknowledgements (Authorship, funding, conflict-of-interest statement)
	Tables (separate word document)
	Figures (file type per guide for authors)
	Cover letter (to Editor-in-Chief justifying need to publish your paper)

Many journals have additional requirements that will be explained in the guide for authors. Also, different types of submissions (original research, meta-analysis, case report) will have different components to the manuscript body.
